

Self-similarity in γ : the chain spectrum is centred on $\gamma + \delta$, so the 1-bit notch always splits true segments into two plateaus

(a) The filter and its notch for $\gamma \in \{1, 2, 3\}$

(b) Rescaled by the notch: one universal filter, modes always straddle it

