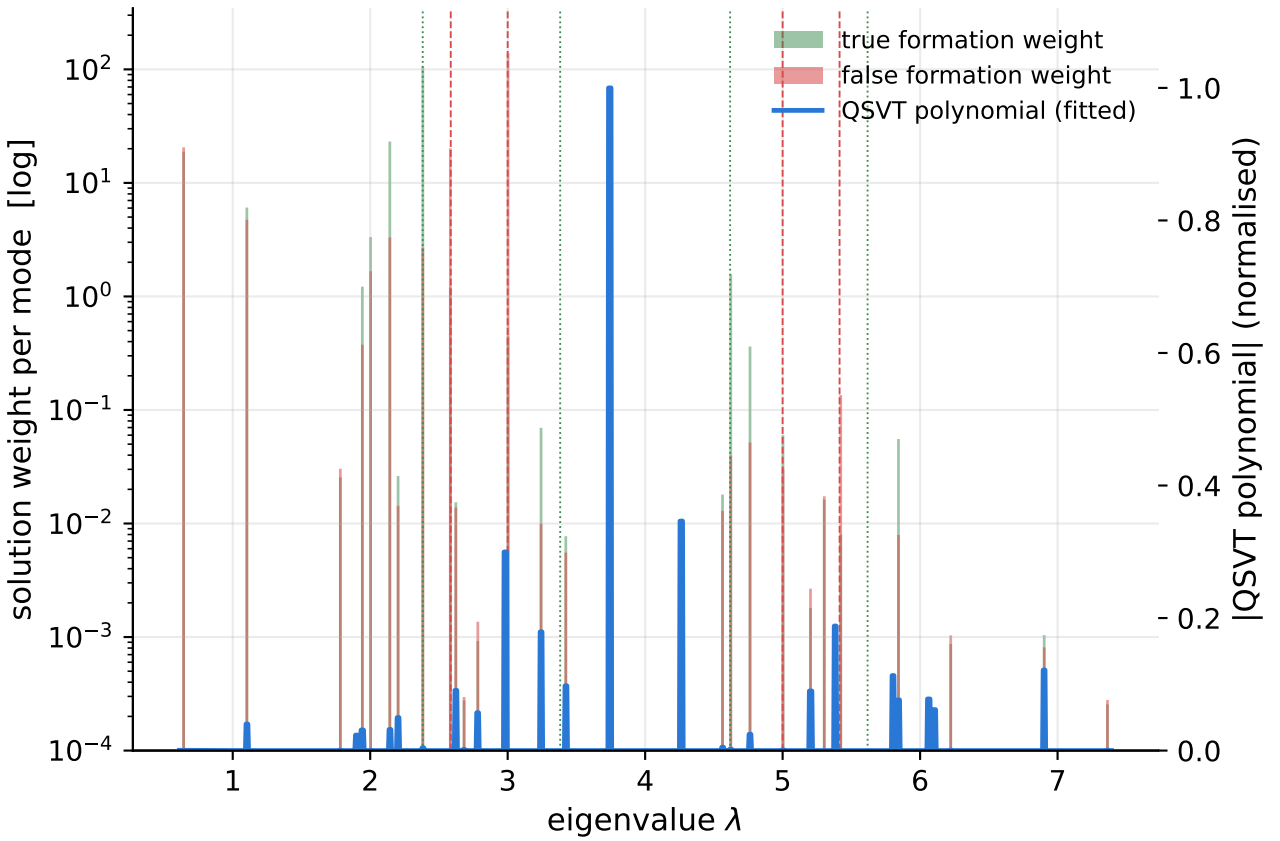
(a) the measurement: false weight piles up on the motif lines;
the fitted QSVT polynomial puts its roots there



(b) the frontier after fitting: the fragment floor bites only above efficiency ≈ 0.99

(c) matched-efficiency comparison below the floor
(mean over three events)

(d) realisability (direct degree-d fit) and generalisation, no-fork system