

Real-event activation spectra — the fragment floor is a population, inside the false bulk for every solver

